

Remembering Mecca Williams

Mecca Williams was born May 15, 1962 in Detroit, Michigan to the loving union of Joeretta and Umballa Allah. Mecca was educated in the Detorit Public School System and graduated from Ferndale High School in 1980. Mecca later went to pursue her dreams and graduated from Henry Ford Community College with her Associates Degree in Culinary Arts in 2015.

On November 8, 1991, Mecca married Christopher Williams. Born to their union was their daughter Crystal Williams. Mecca, affectionally known as "Mec" or "Mama Mecca," accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior at Holy Temple of Truth, under the leadership of Zilliah Wilson. Zilliah was Meece sister and best friend. They talked for hours daily, up to six times a day. What a bond they had!

Mecca loved her family so much. There was nothing she wouldn't do for them. She would stand for hours cooking their holiday meals. She loved being surrounded around her family and friends. She was the life of the party. She loved to cook, sing, ballroom (with Lydia and Kesha) and playing cards. She was known for her funny metaphors, famous mac and cheese and her oh so delicious sweet potato pies. Mecca loved being around her family, especially her grandchildren. On weekends, She would love to play cards and cook. Her saying would; be "If One Eats, We All Gone Eat." Most importantly was the love she had for everyone. We would end the night with her telling everyone go home and go to bed. Mecca was a Jill of all trades. On top of her cooking, if you gave her instructions she could put it together, paint it or drywall it.

Mecca made her transition to be with the Lord, May 10 at 1:35 am at Ascension St. John Hospital, surrounded by her loved ones. She was preceded in death by her parents, Joeetta and Umballa, her brother Kalumalla, her sisters, Salome, Karen, Lillie (a.k.a. JoAnn Simmie McCloud), sister-in-law, Lydia Williams, brother-in-law Howard Patterson, great granddaughter Arielle and two nephews, Maurice and Davon, whom she looked at as sons.

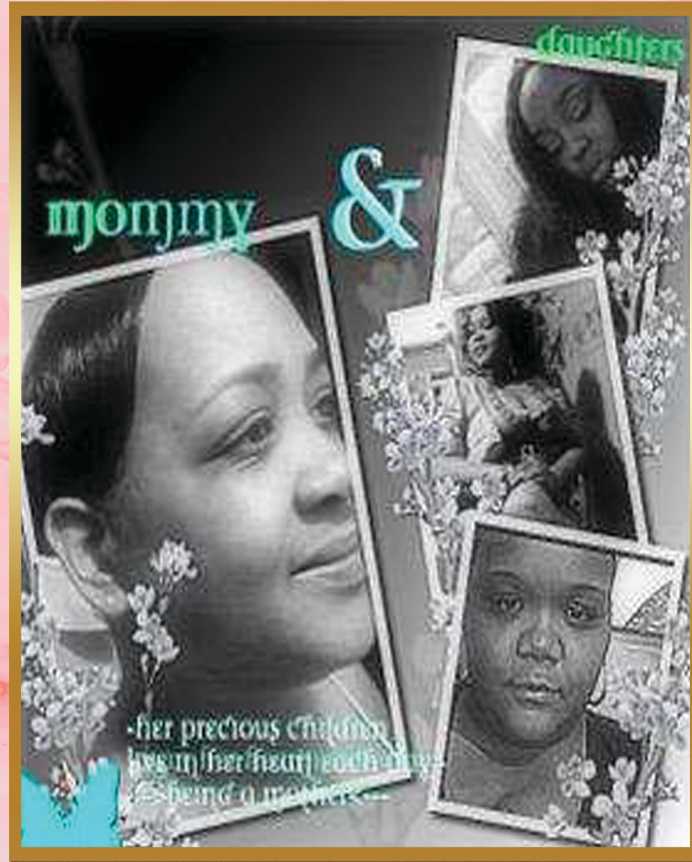

Meca leaves to cherish her momory, her loving daughters, Kesha (Glenn), Shawnda (Robert) and Crystal (Tyrone). She also leaves her bonus children that loved her like a mother, Julius, Diores, Cedric, Danielle, and Arielle; 12 grandchildren, Keshawn, KeShaunte, Keyon, Keyondra, Jvon, Robert Jr, Christian, Julius Jr, Brendon, Wynter, Kamri and Lorenzo; three great-grandchildren, Kamari, Kayden and Kamoni; two brothers, Sal Henderson (Denise) and Dimerius Greene; seven sisters, Zilliah (Kevin), Zelaph, Kathy (Kevin) Que and Aisha Griffin, Sabme and Amanda; two bestfriends, Antoinette Brown and Regina Moore; her favorite cousin, Norma Gaines and a whole hosts of aunts, nephews, nieces and cousins.

Mecca will truly be missed so this is not goodbye, this is see you later.

Mama Mecca,
Baby Girl, you got your wings. I'm never going to forget all the fun times we had, all the funny metaphors, all the laughs, all the cookouts and the love. I'm so happy me and Danni got to spread these last few summers with you living it up. I will never forget our weekend parties, our nights out, our talks and your food. I will never forget your favorite phrase and your heavy foot on the gas in your suzuki speeding on the freeway. I loved when you said "Fair exchange and no robbery!" But it is when we lost you, what did we get in return other than sadness. Anyway it's never good by, It's see you later! Love You Mec.

for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.*

Dear Mama,

My personal letter to you. Since the day you left us, I have picked up the phone tons of times at the time you should call me to check on you. but there was no answer, no text, no more phone calls and it hurt so bad to no hear your voice anymore or see your face. I was lucky to see you when you woke up and then when you closed your eyes.

Rest Peacefully Mama,
Love You, Kesha

Mom, I still see your face before me. Your voice I long to hear. I miss and love you dearly, God knows. I wish you were here. Tears fall freely from my eyes like a river filled with grief. My only comfort now is that from pain, you've found relief. These tears I shed today are because I miss you. Especially on this special day and I just want you to know you are always in my heart and will be til the end when i see you again. I love you Ma. My forever leading lady. You go your wings. Fly with the butterflies in the sky.

~Shawnda

You never said 'I'm leaving, You never said goodbye; You were gone before I knew it, And only God knew why. A million times I needed you, A million times I cried; If Love alone could have saved you, You never would have died. In Life I loved you dearly, In death I love you still; In my heart you hold a place, That no one could ever fill. It broke my heart to lose you, But you didn't go alone; For part of me went with you, The day God took you home. I Love You Forever Mom!

~Crystal

"P's Up...D's Down" ~Keshawn

Mama Mecca,
Love you like you carried me for 9 months. I'm going to miss our long talks for hours, our movie nights, me climbing in bed with you and laying on your chest like a baby. Hearing you tell me how cute I look, being my alarm, waking me up so i wouldn't miss work; but at least i have these memories. At thanksgiving, I will continue to carry on the tradition you taught me the best recipes ever for some elbow noodles and cheese and sweet potatoe pies. Everytime I hear Rod wave, I will think of nothing but you. I'll make sure I sing my butt off just lke you would when you heard him. They say blood doesn't make you family and it don't because girl I love you like you gave me life. We are forever locked in baby. No love lost Ma, time just got cut short. We will chill again baby. Forever loving you, promise.
