You have to tell the truth about your wounds in order to heal. If it hurts, admit it. If it's killing your soul, admit it. If it's not okay, don't say it's okay, admit it. We start healing by telling the truth, so be honest about what you're feeling.

Expressions OF LOVE

Even though my heart aches so bad , I am so glad God made u my daughter. You loved me so much & I love you even more! Thank you for everything, you fought so hard and I know you did. Please watch over me , protect me , keep me under your wing and guide me. I got the kids and grandkids until I take my last breath. You truly are the best person to walk this earth in my heart. Baby, get your rest.

~Love Mom

Daddy Loves You!!!

~Dad

My Big Sister,
You've earned your wings and will forever be in my heart. Until we meet again.

~Yeye

Eternal rest grant unto them, O' Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the Mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen!

~Love Always, Najaball

My Bess,

You were so beautiful Inside and out! I'm going to miss your smile, your ponytail your baby talk, our laughs we shared and cussing me out. No one could ever come into Comparison! You were a social butterfly... and because of that you were loved by do many & you are the only person I know that ordered white Air Forces and Pumas every week. My Boo stayed fresh & until we meet agan. Bess I Love you!

~Forever, Bess Dia

Special Friend,

Although the time has come, for us to briefly part; You'll never be that far away, because you're always in my heart. All the memories that we treasured, will never disappear; I'll think of them when i'm lonely, and i know you'll still be near. The tears are still falling, and I think about the past; You'll be remembered everyday, until my heart beats it's very last. We may never share this world again, This i cannot pretend; but just remember this is the beginning, this is not the end.

~Love, La Kisha

Tina There Is No Alternative

Latina Renna Hall was born on November 11, 1973 in Detroit, Michigan to her loving parents Eula and Victor. Affectionately known as Tina, she attended Detroit Public Schools and received her Diploma from Martin Luther King High School. Tina had a heart of gold and she exemplified that and pursued her HHA license where she was to connect with people and extend the overflow of love that was in her heart.

A woman's greatest accomplishment in life is being a mom. Tina was an exceptional mother to three beautiful children Victoria, Shawn, and Jozie. Being a mom isn't always easy. It comes with much patience, love, endurance and also sacrifice. Tina did this effortlessly. The nurturing and care that she provided to her children individually is irreplaceable. Having three very different kids with different personalities and needs didn't stop Tina. The love that she showed them as a mother is an example to follow. Tina attributed her rawness, assertiveness, sassiness and strength to her mom. The bond that a mother and daughter share is priceless. The secrets, the early morning conversations, the "MA", the "What Tina", the cries, the hugs, the laughs, late night jam session...the EVERYTHING, is just some. Tina and Linda were inseparable wherever you saw one the other wasn't too far behind; Best Friends for sure. Tina believed in family. The love that she had for her father was precious. She was a "Daddy's Girl" indeed. There is nothing that she needed or wanted that he didn't provide. His fatherly reassurance and love was special. Tina absolutely loved and cherished her family: From the oldest to the youngest.

Chitchatting with her sisters, laughter with Dad, watching a movie with mom, in the kitchen with her daughters, eating and talking with her Son, playing with her grandkids, or riding with her girls, Tina was an absolute joy to be around. She was always down to have a good time. Growing up Tina saw how mom was the glue to family gatherings, picnics, driveway bonfires, BBQ's and family time, therefore Tina modeled after that. Tina's door was always open. Her saying was "Go ask yo momma first"! When you got the OK, you would go over to her house and there the hospitality began. You couldn't leave her house hungry. Tina would feed you until you almost burst. Her specialty was Salmon Croquettes and BBQ Ribs with no sauce. Her smile, laughter and light were infectious. There was never a time that Tina walked in the room and didn't illuminate the darkness. Her sunglasses on her face or on top of her head you knew she was right there. Tina was Fiesty and fierce! You didn't mess with her at all! When the eyebrow went up it was over! Very funny, and full of life.

Her resilience was matchless. Tina never said No or I can't. To have known this beautiful woman inside and out is to love her; Extremely passionate and sweet.

Tina was very affectionate, caring and funny. When she called, you knew that you were either going to be laughing or crying. The respect that she silently required was amazing. The loyalty that she exuded was contagious. Tina was big on loyalty, respect and truth. She gave respect and she expected that same in return. Her strength and courage that she exemplified was shining until the last moment. Tina was indeed the epitome of a Great Woman.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-4 To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; God in his Sovereign will called Tina home on June 16, 2023 surrounded by love. Tina leaves to mourn her parents Eula and Victor; children: Victoria, Shawn (Nicole), and Jozie, Marc, Grandchildren: Rashawn, Kingston, Kaleigh, Karsten, and Brooklyn, Besties: Keisha Kirsey and Dia and a host of family and friends.

A Mother's Love

Forever My Lady!

Your oldest baby wasn't ready. Our life together was everything, all these beautiful memories. Although you left me physically, I still feel you mentally and spiritually I think of all the "things you gave to me, sacrifice, devotion, love, tears, your heart, your mind, your energy. You loved me with a never failing love you gave me strength and sweet security everyday. I'll do my best to be a mother just like you were to me. I Love you so much mama and Im gonna miss you. Just know our loved is sealed for eternity!

~Love Always, Victoria

Hey ma .....What a hard working, strong, beautiful, amazing, Mother! I want to start off by saying I love you and miss you momma. as hard as it is to accept, I knew this time had to come one day just didn't expect it to be this soon. I've already had plenty sleepless nights reminiscing about the times we had. You are a strong loving woman ma. I then witnessed you making it through the toughest situations, that's why I just knew you would Win this fight. It's so hard accepting life right now living with out you here but I know you would want me to be strong and keep making you proud. You always told me no matter who step foot in our home I would always be the MAN of the house and I truly live by that. No matter what, I'm going to continue to make you proud of me and take care of our family. I'm going to forever be the MAN you raised. I got granddad, granny, joz, vicky and all the grand kids. I promise.

~Love You Ma, Shaun

Mommy I love you more than words can explain you helped me through so many hard times in life you have my whole heart, the center of my joy you ran this race we call life and finished strong I remember your love of my best friend your beautiful life from beginning to end I'm glad I knew you as mommy and friend wish things were different but you're in a better place I love you forever and always

~Your Youngest Baby - Big Joz

A grandparents prayer
God you have blessed me indeed as the child I love has had a child I love with all that is within me.

I pray that in your mercy you watch over and protect my grandchildren as you have always done for me.
May their lives be long and healthy.

May they have the courage to follow their dreams and should the day come when I am no longer on Earth with them, may they look back upon me with fond memories and may they never forget that they were and always will be deeply loved by me.

We love you Grandma

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me

I took his hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play

Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy

A friendship shared,
a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes,
these things I too will miss

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I've savored much,

Good friends, good times, my loved one's touch

If my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now
with undue grief

Lift up your heart, rejoice with me,
God wanted me now,
He set me free.
